BY ANSKAR LENZEN & LEA MILDE

About

Zwei Zebras is an eco-friendly brand specializing in nature photography, wilderness conservation, and ecological education. It was founded by the two studied wildlife ecologists and passionate photographers Anskar Lenzen and Lea Milde. Based in northern Germany they act globally to inspire. Through time, experience, and dedication, they have grown to be advocates for an ethical approach on nature and wildlife photography, as well as a sustainable and mindful take on exploration and travel.

Their mission is to inspire and educate their like-minded audience in terms of conservation, sustainability, and eco-consciousness. Although specializing in conservation and wildlife photography, their photographic capabilities go beyond capturing natural scenes. To show various green alternatives in the photography and travel industry they work together with renowned eco-friendly brands and organisations.

Lea Milde

WILDLIFE ECOLOGIST & PHOTOGRAPHER

SHE/HER

Lea is a wildlife ecologist (M.Sc.), conservationist, and nature conservation photographer. She is deeply passionate about capturing the wild in all its forms, from the birds in her backyard to the iconic wildlife of Africa and the diverse ecosystems of this world. With her camera and scientific background, Lea endeavours to tell stories about conservation efforts, raise awareness for the threats facing wildlife today, and ultimately, bring people closer to nature.

Her commended photographs have been widely shared and have resonated with thousands of people who have joined her mission on social media.

Lea is also a proud ambassador for Girls Who Click and has been named Newcomer Wildlife Photographer of 2022 by National Geographic Germany.

Anskar Lenzen

WILDLIFE ECOLOGIST & PHOTOGRAPHER

HE / HIM

Anskar is a photographer with a Master's degree in wildlife ecology. He has built up a wealth of experience, having shot numerous campaigns for renowned organizations and brands, such as National Geographic Germany. He also uses his platforms to give voice to smaller, lesser-known brands that prioritize eco-friendliness. Through social media, Anskar raises awareness about various environmental issues and has drawn the attention of tens of thousands of people who have joined him on his journey.

Anskar has expertly merged his deep passion for nature and wildlife conservation with his photography, both on camera and film. This has become an essential pursuit in his life, alongside his work as a biologist. His award-winning imagery, which is shared globally, inspires others to care for and protect our environment.
