

ANSKAR LENZEN

NATURE & OUTDOOR PHOTOGRAPHER

Anskar is a photographer & videographer with a Master's degree in wildlife ecology. He has built up a wealth of experience, having shot numerous campaigns for renowned organizations and brands, such as Sony Germany, OM System, and ZEISS. He also uses his platforms to give voice to smaller, lesser-known brands that prioritize eco-friendliness. Through social media, Anskar raises awareness about various environmental issues and has drawn the attention of tens of thousands of people who have joined him on his journey.

Anskar has expertly merged his deep passion for nature and wildlife conservation with his photography, both on camera and film. This has become an essential pursuit in his life, alongside his work as a biologist. His award-winning imagery, which is shared globally, inspires others to care for and protect our environment.
